

1890 Special Census

In 1890 a special census of Civil War Veterans was taken. While the regular 1890 Census of most states has been lost, this census remains.

We will go through Wood County by town and city over the next few installments of the Newsletter.

A future edition of this newsletter will contain the census for Lincoln and Rock townships.

Wood County Cemetery Index

I have put together an index for the Wood County Cemetery books that were published in the 1980's. It lists all the small cemeteries in the County but does not include the cemeteries in Wisconsin Rapids or Marshfield. The Marshfield Library has an updated list of burials in Hillside Cemetery. Parts of this list, by Town, will also appear in the Newsletter. Here are the cemeteries included and their code numbers. Keep this list handy. Also the A's are listed below.

Example of how to use this index:

Abbey, Chas. 30

Charles Abbey is located in Union Protestant Cemetery (#30) in Miladore. These listings are in Volume 6 of the Cemetery Books at the Marshfield Public Library.
