

Four Seasons Antique Mall—355 South Central Avenue

The Four Seasons Antique Mall has occupied the “Weber Building” at the corner of Fourth and South Central Avenue since 1988, when she bought the building from the Weber Brothers.

As you enter the rounded double door corner entrance you will be embraced with two levels of room-like settings filled with antiques. Four Seasons is Central Wisconsin’s largest antique mall with 6,000-square feet of top quality antiques.

Four Season Antique Mall, located at 355 South Central Avenue, December 2011.

To better serve the public, the mall is open seven days a week. The business is owned and operated by Shelby Weister.

In May, 2012, Shelby decided to retire and close the store after almost 25 years of supplying antiques to the community.
