

Unique Theatre—126 South Central Avenue

For the last three years the Unique Theatre has been furnishing high class amusement with its pictures at 126 South Central Avenue.

There are two hundred and fifty comfortable opera chairs in the theatre, and these are as a rule all occupied at performances, for the house is very popular.

Performances are given every evening and on Sunday afternoons, high class pictures being shown, including Mutual Masterpictures, Fox Films, etc. The admission is five and ten cents.

C. W. Rice, manager of the Unique Theatre, has one of the neatest, cleanest, best-ventilated and altogether sanitary theatres in the state and deserves the patronage he enjoys.

He gives careful attention to all details and sees that his patrons obtain the best for the money in every way and enjoys themselves amid surroundings that are healthful.
