NEW MEETING ROOMS

Our current meeting room will under go construction to become part of the cafeteria.

For the January meeting, we will have a temporary room in the Lawton Center. Room R1C is on the first floor of the Lawton Center. When you stand in the center of the parking lot in front of the Marshfield Clinic looking at the main entrance, the Lawton Center is the building on your right. Enter the atrium between the Marshfield Clinic and the Lawton Center. Turn right to go in to the Lawton Center. Take the corridor to the right of the reception desk. The second or third door on your left is labeled Room R1C.

Beginning in February, M.A.G.G. meetings will be held in the Marshfield Clinic Conference Room L-206. Press LL on the elevator for the lower level. Once on the lower level, follow the signs to L-206. Room L-206 will be about the same size as our former room and have the same furnishings.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO MEET

A meeting of the M.A.G.G. full Board of Directors including committee chairpersons will be held immediately following the January meeting. All members are asked to attend.

SHOW AND TELL AND PROBLEM SHOOTING

On Thursday, 27 January 1994 at 7 p.m. the program will be Show and Tell and Problem Shooting. We will have the opportunity to share some of the successes or problems each of us have encountered in our genealogical research. For successes, be prepared to tell how you have looked for the information. Remember, everyone has something to give; everyone has something to get. NOTE: CHANGE IN LOCATION! We will meet in Lawton Center meeting room R1C.

Dear Members,

It is truly hard to believe that the end of the year is near. My position as president will soon come to an end as the search for a new president begins. Election of officers will be held during our May meeting. If you would be interested in holding a position in the Marshfield Area Genealogy Group, please contact one of the present officers. The information I have gathered over these past two years from other members as well as other groups is tremendous and I encourage you to think about the possibility of serving our group through an office position.

During this holiday season when family and friends surround us, bring out the memories of years gone by. Talk about the cherished ornament received from Aunt Polly when you were a small child or the picture of Cousin Sam when he cut down the first Christmas tree. These memories will linger on and on for years to come. Remember to share these memories with the younger generations so the tradition of memories carries on.

May you all have a wonderful holiday season.

Greetings,

Jane Braun, President

GETTING RESULTS BY MAIL

There are ways to enhance the quality of genealogical research conducted by mail. whether corresponding with institutions, genealogists or other researchers can follow these simple rules for success.

- 1. Take your correspondence seriously. Write a professional looking letter that demands attention.
- 2. Do your homework. Find everything you can about the institution which you are writing.
- 3. Don't expect the institution's personnel to do research for you. They don't have the time, training or inclination.
- 4. Use the complete, accurate address of the institution or person with whom you are corresponding.
- 5. Make one initial request, and make it as simple as possible. Explain what you need briefly and specifically. Don't clutter your letter with family information they don't need to know.
- 6. When asking for information about a specific person, give the person's name, locality and the time period from which information is sought.
- 7. ENCLOSE A SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE
- 8. Offer to pay for copies and labor.
- 9. Include your complete, accurate address.
- 10. Date and make copies of all correspondence.
- 11. Send thank you notes for all responses to correspondence.

STUMBLIN' AROUND AGAIN IN FAMILY INFORMATION by Richard N. Grafton

Family information can come from many unexpected sources. A case in point happened this summer as my wife and I were closing up her parent's house, preparing to sell it. Going through 40 years accumulation of possessions and remembrances, it became apparent that the folks were savers of Christmas cards, Birthday greetings, Birth announcements and funeral cards. Birth announcements and funeral cards are obvious informational finds. What surprised us was the wealth of information we found in the Christmas and birthday cards. For instance my father-in-law's brother always included word of his son John: John graduates from high school, John graduates from college and joins the Air Force, John receives his wings and marries, John is in Vietnam, John leaves the service and is a pilot for Delta Airlines, John and family now consist of three children, John and family build house in Utah, etc.

Other cards contained short notes from other family members; one from his sister mentions father-in-law was born in South Dakota -- and we had thought all these years he had been born in Idaho! Another brother, in a birthday greeting card, includes a note of his wife's death some months back. Which shows the family is not much on immediate communication.

Family photos were often included with the cards; if only they were identified!

Finally, neatly folded in an old Christmas card postmarked "Idaho, 1936," we found a carefully hand drawn family tree showing the family line back to Danzig, Russia, in the early 1800's. We had always thought the family was from Germany. The work had been done by a 19 year old sister who had died in an automobile crash in 1937. [What would you do differently?] --from Richard N. Grafton, "Stumblin' Around Again" Trail Breakers (Clark County Genealogical Society, Vancouver, Washington), Vol. 20, No. 1 (1993-1994) p. 40.

THINGS I WISH I KNEW WHEN I WAS GETTING STARTED IN GENEALOGY

This column is intended to include items, articles comments and quips on topics of interest to all genealogists from beginner to advanced. Please submit your thoughts and comments. Thanks!

LAND RECORD DEFINITIONS

HEADRIGHT: Usually practiced in the 17th century in British North America, this was the grant of a set number of acres of land given for each person or settler whose ship passage the sponsor paid.

INDENTURE: In connection with land, this was a deed usually written twice on a long sheet of paper. Cut on a wavy line or an "indented" line between the two manuscripts. The two parts were given to the parties concerned, that is the buyer and the seller. Later if the two parts fit together at the wavy line, it was apparent proof of legitimacy.

INMATE: Far from its apparent meaning, this term was used in earlier times to designate an adult male or female who was renting property rather than owning it.

MESSAGE: Often mentioned in deeds of earlier days. This means that a house or some habitable structure was then standing on the property.

PATENT: Concerning land, such a document was proof of possession of real estate purchased from a state, the federal government or colony. Once an individual had a patent for his land, all other disposals of that property could be made by deed or will.

SQUATTER: Although seemingly highly derogative, this term was used officially and in common language to describe individuals who had taken up residence on land they didn't legally own.

--from Niagara Co. Genealogical Society via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 4 (1993), p. 4.

GLOSSARY OF LAND TERMS

B.L.W.: Bounty Land Warrant.

BOUNTY LAND: Portion of Public Domain given to soldiers for military service, in place of money payment.

CHAIN: Measurement used in surveying; 66 feet in length or 100 links of 7.92 inches.

DOWER RIGHT: The right of a widow to a portion of her deceased husband's estate. In a land record a release without any conditions or restrictions.

LINK: A measurement of land; one link is 7.92 inches.

MLW: Military Land Warrant.

METES & BOUNDS: A method of survey used in eastern United States in which boundaries were determined by locations of physical landmarks.

PUBLIC DOMAIN: Land which belonged to the Federal Government. All land except the original 13 Colonies, Kentucky, Tennessee, Vermont, West Virginia and Texas.

QUIT CLAIM DEED: An instrument by which a person releases all interest or claim he has in a particular piece of land.

RANGE: A land measurement east or west of a principle meridian used in locating land.

WARRANTY DEED: A document of conveyance of property sold.--from Christian Co. Quarterly via Henry Co. Genealogy Society and The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 4 (1993), pp. 4-5.

OHIO TAX TIP TO REMEMBER

Land bought in Ohio from the Federal Government was exempt for ALL taxes for five years from purchase date. Therefore, those landowners taxed on the Ohio 1810 Tax List had purchased their land by 1805. This statute was part of the Ordinance of 1801.

--from Sandusky County Kin Hunters via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 4 (1993), p. 4.

OHIO BIRTH AND DEATH RECORDS

Birth and Death records were not recorded by law in Ohio until 1867. Although some records from a few counties predate 1867, records of birth and deaths in Ohio are not generally available before this date. Between 1867 and 1908, the records were kept by the probate court of each county.

Microfilm of the state-wide death records for the period from December 20, 1908 through 1936 is accessed through the Ohio Historical Society. State-wide birth records from 1908 to the present, and state-wide death records from 1937 to the present are maintained by the Division of Vital Statistics, Ohio Department of Health.

The probate court records of birth may contain the child's full name, date and place of birth, sex, color, and parent names. Probate records of deaths may contain the name of the deceased, place of birth, age, occupation, the date and place of death, cause of death and place of residence. —from Westward in Nebraska, September 1991 via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 2 (1993), p. 3.

NEW YORK STATE ARCHIVES

The New York State Archives will now search microfiche indexes of deaths and marriages, 1880 to 1943 [fifth years ago], and births, 1880 to 1918 [seventy-five years ago]. These indexes cover all New York state (EXCEPT) New York City, Albany, Buffalo and Yonkers. You must use their Vital Records Index Search Request Form, available from "New York State Archives", Cultural Education Center 11D40, ALBANY NY 12230. There is a search fee of $5.00 which is non-refundable. This does not include the price of the certificate, which must be obtained from the local registrar. [The index may be searched in person..]

--from Winnebagoland Roots via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 4 (1993), p. 10.

OHIO DEATH RECORDS

For Ohio death records (after 1 January 1937), write to the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Ohio Department of Health, PO BOX 15098, COLUMBUS OH 43215-0098. Send full name of the decedent, date of death, city and county of death and a check payable to the Treasurer, State of Ohio, for $7.00.

Deaths between 20 December 1908 and 1 January 1937, are indexed on microfilm at the Ohio Historical Society Library, 1982 Velma Avenue, COLUMBUS OH 43211. In person you can get a photocopy for .25, but to order by mail the cost is $7.00.

Deaths before 20 December 1908, if recorded, are in the county where the death occured. Write to the Probate Court in that county. Counties vary as to the first dates recorded, as well as the cost for certified copies.—from Licking Lantern, Licking County, Ohio via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 4 (1993), p. 10.

FADED WRITING

If you have a document with faded writing too dim to read, try a 75 watt black light bulb in any lamp that casts light directly on the material. It is reported to do wonders in bringing out the writing.—from Tri-City Genealogical Society via Ancestors Unlimited and The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 2 (1993), p. 3.

NETHERLANDS' RESIDENTS WHO EMIGRATED TO THE UNITED STATES

The Herrick Library, Holland, Michigan 49423, has a computerized list of Netherlands' residents who emigrated to the United States in the last century. Write for more information and include a SASE.--from Prairie Pioneer Genealogical Society, May 1992 via Pedigree Pointers (Stevens Point Area Genealogical Society, Stevens Point, Wisconsin), XV (Spring 1993), p. 22.

NEW YORK STATE RESEARCH

It is difficult to research in this state. It is divided into 62 counties. Each county keeps its own land and probate records, usually at the county courthouse. The judge who presides over probate matters is called the surrogate, and all wills and administrative papers are in his office. Land records are in the county clerks office. Birth, death and marriage records in New York do not officially begin until 1880. However, some towns and counties did keep these records before that time.

All New York counties with the exception of Hamilton County, have one or more published county histories. These histories are important to researchers because of the lack of vital statistics.

Census records are also important in research in New York. There are some from the Colonial period, mostly published. The 1790 to 1880 federal census records for New York are all preserved. An unusual and invaluable feature of New York is that the state had its own census records for the years 1835, 1845, 1855, 1865, 1875, 1880, 1892, 1905, 1915 and 1925. —from Family Tree Genealogical Society via The Illuminator (Zion Genealogical Society, Zion, Illinois) Vol. 9, No. 2 (1993), p. 3.

LOCATING NATURALIZATION PAPERS

Before 1906, the court closest to where your ancestor lived is the likely place to locate final papers of naturalization. After 1906, contact the Immigration and Naturalization Service, 425 I ST NW, WASHINGTON DC 20536. The have an index which might be helpful. Remember that sometimes an immigrant didn't become a citizen.--from Newsletter (Chippewa County Genealogical Society, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin), Vol. 13, No. 6 (Nov/Dec 1993), p. 4. [Ed. Note: In Wisconsin, also check out the Area Research Center for naturalization papers for the locality of interest.]

FORMS AVAILABLE

Forms are regularly available at the monthly meetings of the Marshfield Area Genealogy Group or by contacting the form sales chairperson to make special arrangements.

A variety of Pedigree Charts, Family Group Sheets, Individual Data Sheet and a Data Collection Sheet for the 1905 Wisconsin Census are available at cost.

Forms at these prices are available, as a benefit, to members of the Marshfield Area Genealogy Group only.

CHICAGO VOTER REGISTRATION

Chicago voter registration records for 1888, 1890 and 1892 have been microfilmed and made available for research. Listed are male citizens, age 21 before election day, residents of Illinois for at least one year, Cook County residents for 90 days and in the precinct for 30 days. The records show the voter's address, term of residency, country of birth, naturalized or not, and if so, the date and court in which the papers were obtained. For information contact the Illinois Regional Archives Depository, Northeastern Illinois University, Ronald Williams Library, 5500 N ST LOUIS, CHICAGO IL 60625.

PRISONER OF WAR RECORDS CORRECTION!

The following is a correction to "Prisoner of War Records," Kith and Kin (Marshfield Area Genealogy Group, Marshfield, Wisconsin) 10:2 (Jul-Aug 1993), p. 17. It is taken from a letter, Mark Ragan, Park Historian, National Park Service, Andersonville National Historic Site, Route 1, Box 800, Andersonville, Georgia 31711, [(912) 924-0343] to Charlotte Kruse, 29 September 1993.

We do not hold records of prisoners of war, other than those held at Camp Sumter (Andersonville). As the National POW Memorial, we would eventually like to hold records from other camps, but this will be some time in coming.

...you may obtain copies of Compiled Military Service Records from the National Archives. These documents should give you additional information on ..., such as capture and imprisonment. Pension Application Files may contain additional immediate family information, but not ancestors, and a little military information. You may also wish to write the appropriate state archives for the regiment he served with. They may have additional information.
