

Eagle House—134 South Central Avenue

It is a well-known fact that the traveling man knows the best hotel “in town” when he arrives, and if you follow many of those “making” our city you will see them going to the Eagle Hotel, at 134 South Central Avenue.

Mr. Peter Daul had been conducting this hotel for the past sixteen years, until six months ago, when he passed away. Since then his son, J. M. Daul has had charge of the business.

The eagle Hotel has fourteen guest rooms, all of them up-to-date in every respect, steam-heated, with electric lights, and the service is first-class in all respects.

The house is conducted on the American plan, rates being $1.50 per day, and the service, including the dining room, is on a par with many of the hotels of the large cities.

The dining room is located on the ground floor and is liberally patronized by local as well as by transient people.

*Mr. J. M. Daul, is a very pleasant host, one whose courtesy that those with whom he does business is proverbial, with the result that he is very popular with his guests. He takes great pleasure in seeing that those who stop at his hotel have the worth of their money, and they consequently go away satisfied. Mrs. Peter Daul owns the two-story building which the hotel occupies.
(from the Marshfield Times, April 19, 1916)*

The Eagle Hotel around 1910, located at the northwest corner of South Central Avenue and Second Street.

Eagle House,
PETER BEVER Propr-
(Successor to JOHN LUIS.)
MARSHFIELD,	:	WIS

---

If you have any additional information (including pictures) regarding this business or location, we would really appreciate you contacting us and sharing. We will add information whenever possible.

For questions, or for sharing additional information, please contact us at schnitz1@charter.net. Please include what story the information relates to. Attach your text information in the form of a word document, please no PDF's. Photos should preferably be in jpeg format.

For additional stories on the historical sights and businesses of Marshfield, visit our website at: <http://www.marshfieldgenealogy.com/QR-Codes-of-Historical-Marshfield.html>.