

Envoy Mortgage—211 S. Central Ave., Suite 101

The building was originally used as Citizens Bank in the 1960s and 1970s. It was then transformed into the corporate headquarters for Wick Building Systems and eventually into the headquarters for DuWayne Tremel and Better Hearing Aids. It was purchased in 1995 by Harlan Accola & Conrad Accola and used as part of their offices of a growing aerial photography business and converted in 1996 to be used as Moneywise Mortgage Company, owned by Harlan Accola. In 2009, Moneywise Mortgage merged into Envoy Mortgage, based in Houston, Texas to better serve our clients.

211 South Central Avenue, Spring 2012

Envoy Mortgage provides financial services with an emphasis on mortgages and retirement planning.

Also sharing the building are Vanguard Title and Marshfield Chiropractic, Therapy & Massage.
