

Farmers Home—317 South Central Avenue

Also in this block of Central avenue at that time was “The Farmer’s Home, 40 x 84, erected by Aug. Furstenberg at a cost of $6,000. It is a well planned hotel, finely furnished with fifteen large rooms for the accommodation of guests, besides the family and servants rooms. The north side is occupied by Nick Muellenbach’s provision store, while the last end of the building contains the dining room, kitchen, and sitting room.

(from the Marshfield News Herald, May 18, 1946)

The Farmer’s Home, located at 317 South Central, is conducted by John Bloczynski, who is also a dealer in fine wines, liquors and cigars.

The business was established in August, 1915, and this is an old stand. There are fifteen guest rooms in the Farmers Home, which is conducted on the American plan, the rates being $1.00 per day, and many farmers and other visiting our city stop there. The hotel occupies the greater part of the building, the guest rooms being on the second floor. The dining room is on the first floor.

The Farmer’s Home located at 317 South Central Avenue. Two of the gentlemen seated from the left are identified as August Kotlow and Joe Korth.

(photo from the North Wood County Historical Society)

While he has made a success of the Farmers Home, he has also made a decided success of the buffet and has made many friends in our city. His place is orderly and well-managed and has earned the large patronage that he is enjoying.
 (Marshfield Times, April 19, 1916)

FARMER'S HOME.

JOHN SEIMATZ, Proprietor.

The best barn room in the city.
Patronage of farmers solicited.

The Farmer's Home, prior to June 1887, was ran by John Seimatz and then bought by August Furstenberg, located at 317 South Central Avenue.
 (photo from the North Wood County Historical Society)

The Farmer's Home (pre-1904).
 (photo from the North Wood County Historical Society)

If you have any additional information (including pictures) regarding this business or location, we would really appreciate you contacting us and sharing. We will add information whenever possible.

For questions, or for sharing additional information, please contact us at schnitzl@charter.net. Please include what story the information relates to. Attach your text information in the form of a word document, please no PDF's. Photos should preferably be in jpeg format.

For additional stories on the historical sights and businesses of Marshfield, visit our website at: <http://www.marshfieldgenealogy.com/QR-Codes-of-Historical-Marshfield.html>.