

St. Clair—Page Clothing Store

In 1941 Ed Starks, Bill and Bob St. Clair purchased the Gag Clothing Store at 242 South Central and opened St. Clair and Starks Mens Clothing.

In 1948 Ed Starks moved to Mason City, Iowa, to open a new store. Alfred Page moved to Marshfield in 1948 as managing partner. In 1952 the name was changed to St. Clair—Page and the store was remodeled—new furniture and doors. In 1960 a 30-foot addition, as well as new carpeting and fixtures were added.

St. Clair—Page Clothing Store on left.

In 1984 Page retired and Steve Johnson bought the store. St. Clair-Page always had top notch people on the sales floor, just to name a few—Bill Allen, Gene La Fond, Al Brock, Dan Burns and Don Marine (for 31 years) who still helps part-time. Anna Doll, the tailor, started in 1945 and spent 45 years in the store.

Submitted by Steve Johnson for the Marshfield History Project

Also see story of Gags Clothing Store

Also see story Gagnelius family

Also see story on Hasselbalch

If you have any additional information (including pictures) regarding this business or location, we would really appreciate you contacting us and sharing. We will add information whenever possible.

For questions, or for sharing additional information, please contact us at schnitz1@charter.net. Please include what story the information relates to. Attach your text information in the form of a word document, please no PDF's. Photos should preferably be in jpeg format.

For additional stories on the historical sights and businesses of Marshfield, visit our website at: <http://www.marshfieldgenealogy.com/OR-Codes-of-Historical-Marshfield.html>.